Habitat for Humanity Greater Orlando & Osceola County hosts fourth annual golf tournament to benefit affordable housing

ORLANDO, Fla. (April 24, 2026) — Habitat for Humanity Greater Orlando & Osceola County hosted its fourth annual Homes Fore All Golf Tournament Presented by PulteGroup on Friday to support its mission to pioneer innovative housing solutions, empower individuals through knowledge, and transform communities by addressing the root causes of the housing crisis.

Proceeds from the tournament, which teed off at Shingle Creek Golf Club, will help advance Habitat Orlando & Osceola’s work to create a more sustainable and accessible housing system.

“As a nonprofit, we rely on the generous support of individuals and businesses to work toward our vision of everyone having an affordable place to call home,” said Habitat for Humanity Greater Orlando & Osceola County President & CEO Catherine Steck McManus. “Funds raised from our Homes Fore All Golf Tournament will help provide that stable foundation to foster health, opportunity, and progress in our community.”

Habitat Orlando & Osceola is honored to have PulteGroup as presenting sponsor of this year’s golf tournament. PulteGroup is a longtime generous partner of the nonprofit, having donated the labor and materials to build eight Habitat homes since 2015.

“Our partnership with Habitat Orlando & Osceola reflects PulteGroup’s deep commitment to strengthening the communities where we live and work,” said Clint Ball, division president at PulteGroup. “Supporting this golf tournament is another meaningful way for our team to help advance Habitat’s mission and continue building homes and hope for local families.”
